
Gaps < 0.1 d (back-to-back exposures of overlapping fields) are off-scale and nearly identical in every run: 5.8–6.0 per pixel over the whole sky, 20.9–21.6 per pixel in the LMLZ-wide footprint.